

1st Corinthians 10:19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

A cluster of bright yellow chrysanthemum flowers with green foliage against a dark background. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some showing their characteristic multi-petaled structure. The green leaves are serrated and appear healthy. The overall scene is brightly lit, making the yellow of the flowers stand out sharply against the dark, out-of-focus background.
