

Deutronomy 28:45 Moreover all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, till thou be destroyed; because thou hearkenedst not unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded thee:

A close-up photograph of a branch with several long, narrow, yellowing leaves. The leaves are bright yellow, indicating they are dead or dying. The branch is thin and woody. The background is dark and out of focus, with some blurred light spots, possibly from other foliage or a light source. The overall mood is somber and desolate, which visually reinforces the text of the Bible verse about curses and destruction.
