

A photograph of a small, clear stream flowing over dark, wet rocks in a lush, green forest. Sunlight filters through the dense foliage, creating dappled light on the water and surrounding vegetation. The water is shallow and moves quickly, creating small white rapids and splashes. The background is filled with various types of green plants and trees, some in focus and others blurred.

1st Samuel 02:33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die in the flower of their age.
