Book of Genesis Chapter 08

01_GEN_08_01 And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that [was] with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters asswaged;

01_GEN_08_02 The fountains also of the deep and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained;

01_GEN_08_03 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fifty days the waters were abated.

01_GEN_08_04 And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

01_GEN_08_05 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth [month], on the first [day] of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

01_GEN_08_06 And it came to pass at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made:

01_GEN_08_07 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

01_GEN_08_08 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground;

01_GEN_08_09 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark, for the waters [were] on the face of the whole earth: then he put forth his hand, and took her, and pulled her in unto him into the ark.

01_GEN_08_10 And he stayed yet other seven days; and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark;

01_GEN_08_11 And the dove came in to him in the evening; and, lo, in her mouth [was] an olive leaf plucked off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

01_GEN_08_12 And he stayed yet other seven days; and sent forth the dove; which returned not again unto him any more.

01_GEN_08_13 And it came to pass in the six hundredth and first year, in the first [month], the first [day] of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and, behold, the face of the ground was dry.

01_GEN_08_14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

01_GEN_08_15 And God spake unto Noah, saying,

01_GEN_08_16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' wives with thee.

01_GEN_08_17 Bring forth with thee every living thing that [is] with thee, of all flesh, [both] of fowl, and of cattle, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth; that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

01_GEN_08_18 And Noah went forth, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him:

01_GEN_08_19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, [and] whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kinds, went forth out of the ark.

01_GEN_08_20 And Noah builded an altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt offerings on the altar.

01_GEN_08_21 And the LORD smelled a sweet savour; and the LORD said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake; for the imagination of man's heart [is] evil from his youth; neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done.

01_GEN_08_22 While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.
