Book of Job Chapter 33

18_JOB_33_01 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

18_JOB_33_02 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

18_JOB_33_03 My words [shall be of] the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

18_JOB_33_04 The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

18_JOB_33_05 If thou canst answer me, set [thy words] in order before me, stand up.

18_JOB_33_06 Behold, I [am] according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.

18_JOB_33_07 Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

18_JOB_33_08 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the voice of [thy] words, [saying],

18_JOB_33_09 I am clean without transgression, I [am] innocent; neither [is there] iniquity in me.

18_JOB_33_10 Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy,

18_JOB_33_11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

18_JOB_33_12 Behold, [in] this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.

18_JOB_33_13 Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.

18_JOB_33_14 For God speaketh once, yea twice, [yet man] perceiveth it not.

18_JOB_33_15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;

18_JOB_33_16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,

18_JOB_33_17 That he may withdraw man [from his] purpose, and hide pride from man.

18_JOB_33_18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

18_JOB_33_19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong [pain]:

18_JOB_33_20 So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty meat.

18_JOB_33_21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones [that] were not seen stick out.

18_JOB_33_22 Yea, his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

18_JOB_33_23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show unto man his uprightness:

18_JOB_33_24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.

18_JOB_33_25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he shall return to the days of his youth:

18_JOB_33_26 He shall pray unto God, and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness.

18_JOB_33_27 He looketh upon men, and [if any] say, I have sinned, and perverted [that which was] right, and it profited me not;

18_JOB_33_28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

18_JOB_33_29 Lo, all these [things] worketh God oftentimes with man,

18_JOB_33_30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

18_JOB_33_31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.

18_JOB_33_32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

18_JOB_33_33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.
