

Book of Ezekiel Chapter 19

26_EZE_19_01 Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,

26_EZE_19_02 And say, What [is] thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions.

26_EZE_19_03 And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men.

26_EZE_19_04 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt.

26_EZE_19_05 Now when she saw that she had waited, [and] her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, [and] made him a young lion.

26_EZE_19_06 And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, [and] devoured men.

26_EZE_19_07 And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring.

26_EZE_19_08 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit.

26_EZE_19_09 And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.

26_EZE_19_10 Thy mother [is] like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.

26_EZE_19_11 And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

26_EZE_19_12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken and withered; the fire consumed them.

26_EZE_19_13 And now she [is] planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground.

26_EZE_19_14 And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, [which] hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod [to be] a sceptre to rule. This [is] a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.
