

A photograph of a pond with several lily pads floating on the water. The water is dark and reflects the surrounding greenery. The lily pads are bright green and some have small brown spots. The text is overlaid on the upper left portion of the image.

Psalm 136:14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it: for his mercy endureth for ever: