

Genesis 44:19 My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father,
or a brother?

A photograph of a forest scene. In the center, a tree's branches are illuminated with bright, golden-yellow autumn leaves. The surrounding trees are dark green and mostly in shadow. In the foreground, there is a field of tall, green grasses, some of which are also catching the light. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.
