

A multi-tiered waterfall cascading over rocks in a lush green forest. The water flows from the top right, down several levels of grey, mossy rocks, and continues to flow down the page. The background is filled with dense green foliage, including ferns and other plants. The overall scene is peaceful and serene.

Hebrews 04:10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.