

A long-exposure photograph of a waterfall cascading over dark, layered rocks. The water is blurred into a soft, white flow, creating a sense of movement. The surrounding forest is dense with vibrant green foliage, with some leaves in the foreground slightly out of focus. The overall scene is serene and natural.

Genesis 30:38 And he set the rods which he had pilled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs when the flocks came to drink, that they should conceive when they came to drink.
