

A close-up photograph of a garden bed. The foreground is filled with lush green foliage, including ferns and various leafy plants. Several bright red flowers, possibly cyclamens, are in bloom, their petals showing some white variegation. To the right, there are several yellow flowers with dark centers, likely pansies. The background is a dense thicket of green leaves and stems, creating a rich, textured backdrop for the flowers.

1st Samuel 25:16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.
