2nd Kings 12:01 In the seventh year
of Jehu Jehoash began to reign;
and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
