

Psalm 71:07 I am as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge.

A close-up photograph of a pink orchid branch. The branch is dark brown and features several large, vibrant pink flowers with prominent veining on their petals. Some buds are visible, appearing as small, reddish-brown, teardrop-shaped structures. The background is a dark, textured green with a bokeh effect, creating a soft, out-of-focus appearance.
