

Ezekiel 19:13 And now she is planted in the wilderness, in a dry
and thirsty ground.

A close-up photograph of several pink roses in full bloom, set against a blurred background of green foliage and other flowers. The roses have multiple layers of petals, with some showing a gradient from light pink to a deeper magenta. The centers of the flowers are filled with numerous yellow stamens. The lighting is soft, highlighting the delicate texture of the petals.
