

An aerial photograph of a rural farm. The landscape is dominated by vibrant green fields, likely corn or soybeans, arranged in neat rows. A dirt road or driveway runs vertically through the center of the image. In the middle ground, there is a large, light-colored house with a prominent chimney and a blue roof. To the right of the house, there are several smaller buildings, possibly barns or sheds, and a large white storage tank. In the lower-left foreground, there is a long, low white structure, possibly a covered walkway or a small shed. The overall scene is a typical rural farmstead.

into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth [ it]; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
