

A large, vibrant yellow maple leaf is the central focus, positioned slightly to the left. It has a distinct hole in its lower right section. The leaf's veins are clearly visible, and its edges are slightly jagged. The background is a dark, almost black, surface with a complex, cracked, and textured appearance, resembling old stone or weathered wood. The overall mood is somber and reflective.

Luk 13:28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you [yourselves] thrust out.
