

Act 04:21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people; for all I men I glorified God for that which was done.

