

Act 26:02 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

A green leaf with numerous white spots, resembling a map of Israel, is positioned behind the text. The leaf is oriented diagonally, with its stem pointing towards the right. The white spots are irregularly shaped and distributed across the green surface of the leaf.