

A close-up photograph of several bright pink, daisy-like flowers with many small petals. The flowers are set against a background of lush green foliage. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

Numbers 31:36 And the half, which was the portion of them that went out to war, was in number three hundred thousand and seven and thirty thousand and five hundred sheep: