

A close-up photograph of a cluster of flowers. The foreground features several bright purple flowers with five petals each, some in full bloom and others as buds. To the right, a single yellow flower is partially visible. The background is filled with more purple flowers, some blurred, and green foliage. The overall scene is vibrant and natural.

Numbers 33:05 And the children of Israel removed from Rameses, and pitched in Succoth.