

A close-up photograph of a large number of pink daisy-like flowers. The flowers have numerous thin, light pink petals radiating from a central brownish-yellow disk. Some of the petals and the central disks are covered with small, clear dew drops, which catch the light and create bright highlights. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting foliage. The overall scene is vibrant and fresh.

Judges 06:40 And God did so that night: for it was dry upon the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.
