

2nd Samuel 08:03 David smote also Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his border at the river Euphrates.

A close-up photograph of a yellow iris flower with green leaves, serving as a background for the text. The flower is in the center, with its petals fully open and showing a vibrant yellow color. The leaves are long and narrow, with a dark green hue. The background is slightly blurred, focusing attention on the flower and the text overlaid on it.