

1st Kings 22:40 So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

A close-up photograph of a diverse bouquet of flowers. The arrangement features several large, light pink petunias with dark centers, interspersed with bright yellow daisy-like flowers. To the right, there are clusters of small, delicate purple flowers. Deep red and magenta blossoms are also visible, adding to the rich color palette. The background is filled with lush green leaves and stems, creating a dense and textured floral display.
