

A close-up photograph of several green leaves, likely from a plant like a grapevine, covered in numerous small, glistening water droplets. The leaves are vibrant green and show some signs of being eaten, with small holes visible. The background is softly blurred, showing more foliage and a hint of a bright light source, possibly the sun, creating a bokeh effect.

Psalm 13:02 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall mine enemy be exalted over me?
