A close-up photograph of a butterfly with vibrant orange wings and dark markings, resting on a light-colored, textured surface. The butterfly is positioned horizontally across the middle of the frame. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the textured surface and a hint of a dark, possibly wooden, structure.

2nd Chronicles 16:14 And they buried him in his own sepulchres, which he had made for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odours and divers kinds of spices prepared by the apothecaries' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

A close-up photograph of several vibrant red flowers, likely gerberas, with detailed petal textures. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, creating a rich, layered background. The lighting is soft, highlighting the natural colors and textures of the petals.

Nehemiah 03:08 Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah
the son of one of the apothecaries,
and they fortified Jerusalem unto
the broad wall.
