

A close-up photograph of a field of lupine flowers. The central focus is a tall, slender stem with a dense cluster of small, bell-shaped flowers in shades of pink and purple. The leaves are bright green and have a distinctive palmate shape with several leaflets radiating from a central point. In the background, other similar flower stalks and green foliage are visible, creating a lush, natural setting. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day.

Acts 10:37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
