

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a field of golden wheat or barley. The stalks are densely packed and have a warm, yellowish-gold hue, suggesting they are ripe. The background is a soft, out-of-focus expanse of the same crop, creating a sense of depth and texture. The lighting is bright and even, highlighting the individual grains and the overall texture of the field.

much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
