

A close-up photograph of a bouquet of flowers. The central focus is a large, vibrant yellow rose with many layers of petals. To its right is a large cluster of purple hydrangea flowers. In the foreground and background, there are several purple pansies. The background is slightly blurred, showing more greenery and a hint of a white object, possibly a basket or a piece of fabric.

Exodus 07:11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their enchantments.
