

A close-up photograph of a tulip field. The background is filled with green leaves and several white tulips. In the center, a large, vibrant orange tulip with yellow and red variegation is in full bloom, facing the viewer. To its right, another orange tulip is partially visible, also in bloom. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font, centered horizontally and vertically.

Exodus 22:05 If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and shall put in his beast, and shall feed in another man's field; of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard, shall he make restitution.
