

A close-up photograph of pink hydrangea flowers and buds against a dark background. The image features several large, open pink flowers with prominent veins, and a large cluster of small, unopened buds in shades of green and pink. The text is overlaid in white, bold, serif font.

Deutronomy 05:11 Thou shalt not take the name of the LORD thy God in vain: for the LORD will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.