

A vibrant field of purple and red flowers, likely verbena, with a text overlay in the upper portion. The text is in a white, serif font, centered horizontally. The background shows a dense field of these flowers stretching towards a horizon line, with some green foliage visible in the foreground.

Nehemiah 06:15 So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.