

An aerial photograph of a dry, cracked mud flat. The ground is a mix of light brown and greyish-brown, with deep, irregular cracks forming a complex, wavy pattern across the surface. The lighting is bright, creating strong shadows in the cracks and highlighting the texture of the dried mud. Overlaid on the top half of the image is a white, serif text quote from the Bible.

Jeremiah 17:15 Behold, they say unto me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now.
