

Genesis 36:32 And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Dinhabah.

A close-up photograph of a field of purple tulips. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others still in bud. The petals are a deep, rich purple color. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting the leaves of the tulips and other plants in the field. The lighting is natural, highlighting the texture of the petals.
