

A wooden bird-shaped idol, possibly a falcon or hawk, is mounted on a weathered wooden post. The idol is positioned in the center of the frame, facing away from the viewer. The background is a blurred field of green grass and yellow wildflowers, suggesting a rural or agricultural setting. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font, centered horizontally and vertically.

Ezekiel 30:13 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.
