

Psalms 41:10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up,
that I may requite them.

A vibrant rainbow arches across a cloudy sky, with lush green trees in the foreground. The rainbow is positioned vertically in the center-right of the frame, extending from the bottom to the top. The sky is filled with soft, grey clouds, and the trees are dense and green, with some yellowing leaves visible. The overall scene is bright and hopeful.
