

The background of the image shows a sunset or sunrise over a dark landscape. The sky is filled with warm, golden light, and the horizon is a dark silhouette of trees or hills. A utility pole is visible on the left side of the image.

Hebrews 07:11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, for under it the people received the law, what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?