

A vibrant still life composition featuring a variety of fresh fruits. In the foreground, there are several slices of cantaloupe with their characteristic orange flesh and green rinds. Interspersed among the cantaloupe are bright orange slices of oranges. To the right, there are several slices of ripe yellow bananas. A small, colorful butterfly with orange and black wings is perched on one of the orange slices. A dragonfly is also visible, resting on a cantaloupe slice in the upper left quadrant. The background is a deep red, possibly a cloth or a surface, which makes the colors of the fruit stand out. The overall scene is bright and fresh, symbolizing abundance and natural beauty.

2nd Chronicles 14:07 Therefore he said unto Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.
