

A close-up photograph of a bright yellow flower, possibly a chrysanthemum, with a small black insect, likely a fly or beetle, perched on one of its petals. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green and yellow. The text is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font.

Ezekiel 28:24 And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.
