

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a waterfall. The water is white and frothy as it falls over dark, wet rocks. The background is a dense forest with green foliage, partially obscured by the mist and spray of the water. The overall mood is serene and natural.

Zechariah 02:07 Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon.