

A close-up photograph of a small waterfall. Water is cascading over several dark, mossy rocks. The water is clear and bright, creating white foam as it falls. The surrounding area is lush with green moss and some dried leaves. The overall scene is serene and natural.

Zephaniah 01:16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.