

2nd Samuel 20:11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, He that favoureth Joab, and he that is for David, let him go after Joab.

A close-up photograph of a vibrant pink Protea flower. The flower's petals are layered and pointed, creating a starburst-like appearance. The background is filled with dark green, textured leaves, likely from the same plant, which are slightly out of focus. The overall lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the petals and leaves.
