

Isaiah 60:19 The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

A paved path leads through a field of green grass and white daisies towards a dense line of trees. The path is made of light-colored gravel or concrete and curves slightly to the right. The background is filled with lush green foliage and trees, creating a sense of a natural, outdoor setting.
