

A photograph of a river with white water rapids. The water is dark green and turbulent, with white foam and spray. The rapids are in the foreground and middle ground, with a rocky bank visible on the left. The text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.

Proverbs 04:03 For I was my father's son, tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.