

Genesis 43:01 And the famine was sore in the land.

A close-up photograph of a bouquet of flowers. The bouquet features several large, rounded clusters of pink hydrangea flowers and several bright yellow roses. The flowers are tied together with a wide, shiny pink ribbon. The background is dark, making the colors of the flowers stand out. The text "Genesis 43:01 And the famine was sore in the land." is overlaid in white, bold, serif font at the top of the image.
