

2nd Timothy 02:07 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

A close-up photograph of a vibrant pink rose with green leaves, serving as a background for the text. The rose is the central focus, with its petals showing a gradient from light pink to a deeper coral hue. The surrounding leaves are lush green and have a slightly glossy texture. The background is dark and out of focus, making the rose stand out prominently.
