

A close-up photograph of a dog's paw resting on green grass with scattered brown leaves. The paw is positioned in the center-right of the frame, with its toes and pads visible. The grass is vibrant green, and the leaves are a mix of brown and tan, suggesting an autumn setting. The lighting is natural, creating soft shadows and highlights on the fur and grass.

Ezekiel 34:10 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat
