Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.
