

A close-up photograph of vibrant green maple leaves, some showing signs of being eaten by insects. The leaves are set against a dark, blurred background, likely a sky or a shadowed area. Overlaid on the upper portion of the image is white text in a serif font, which reads: "Job 23:05 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me." The text is arranged in four lines, with the first line being the longest and the last line being the shortest.

Job 23:05 I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.
