

Job 23:17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

A close-up photograph of a yellow orchid flower with a red and white center, set against a dark background. The flower is the central focus, with its petals and center clearly visible. The background is dark and out of focus, showing some green leaves and other flowers in the distance.