Word Study for --- BETHSAIDA

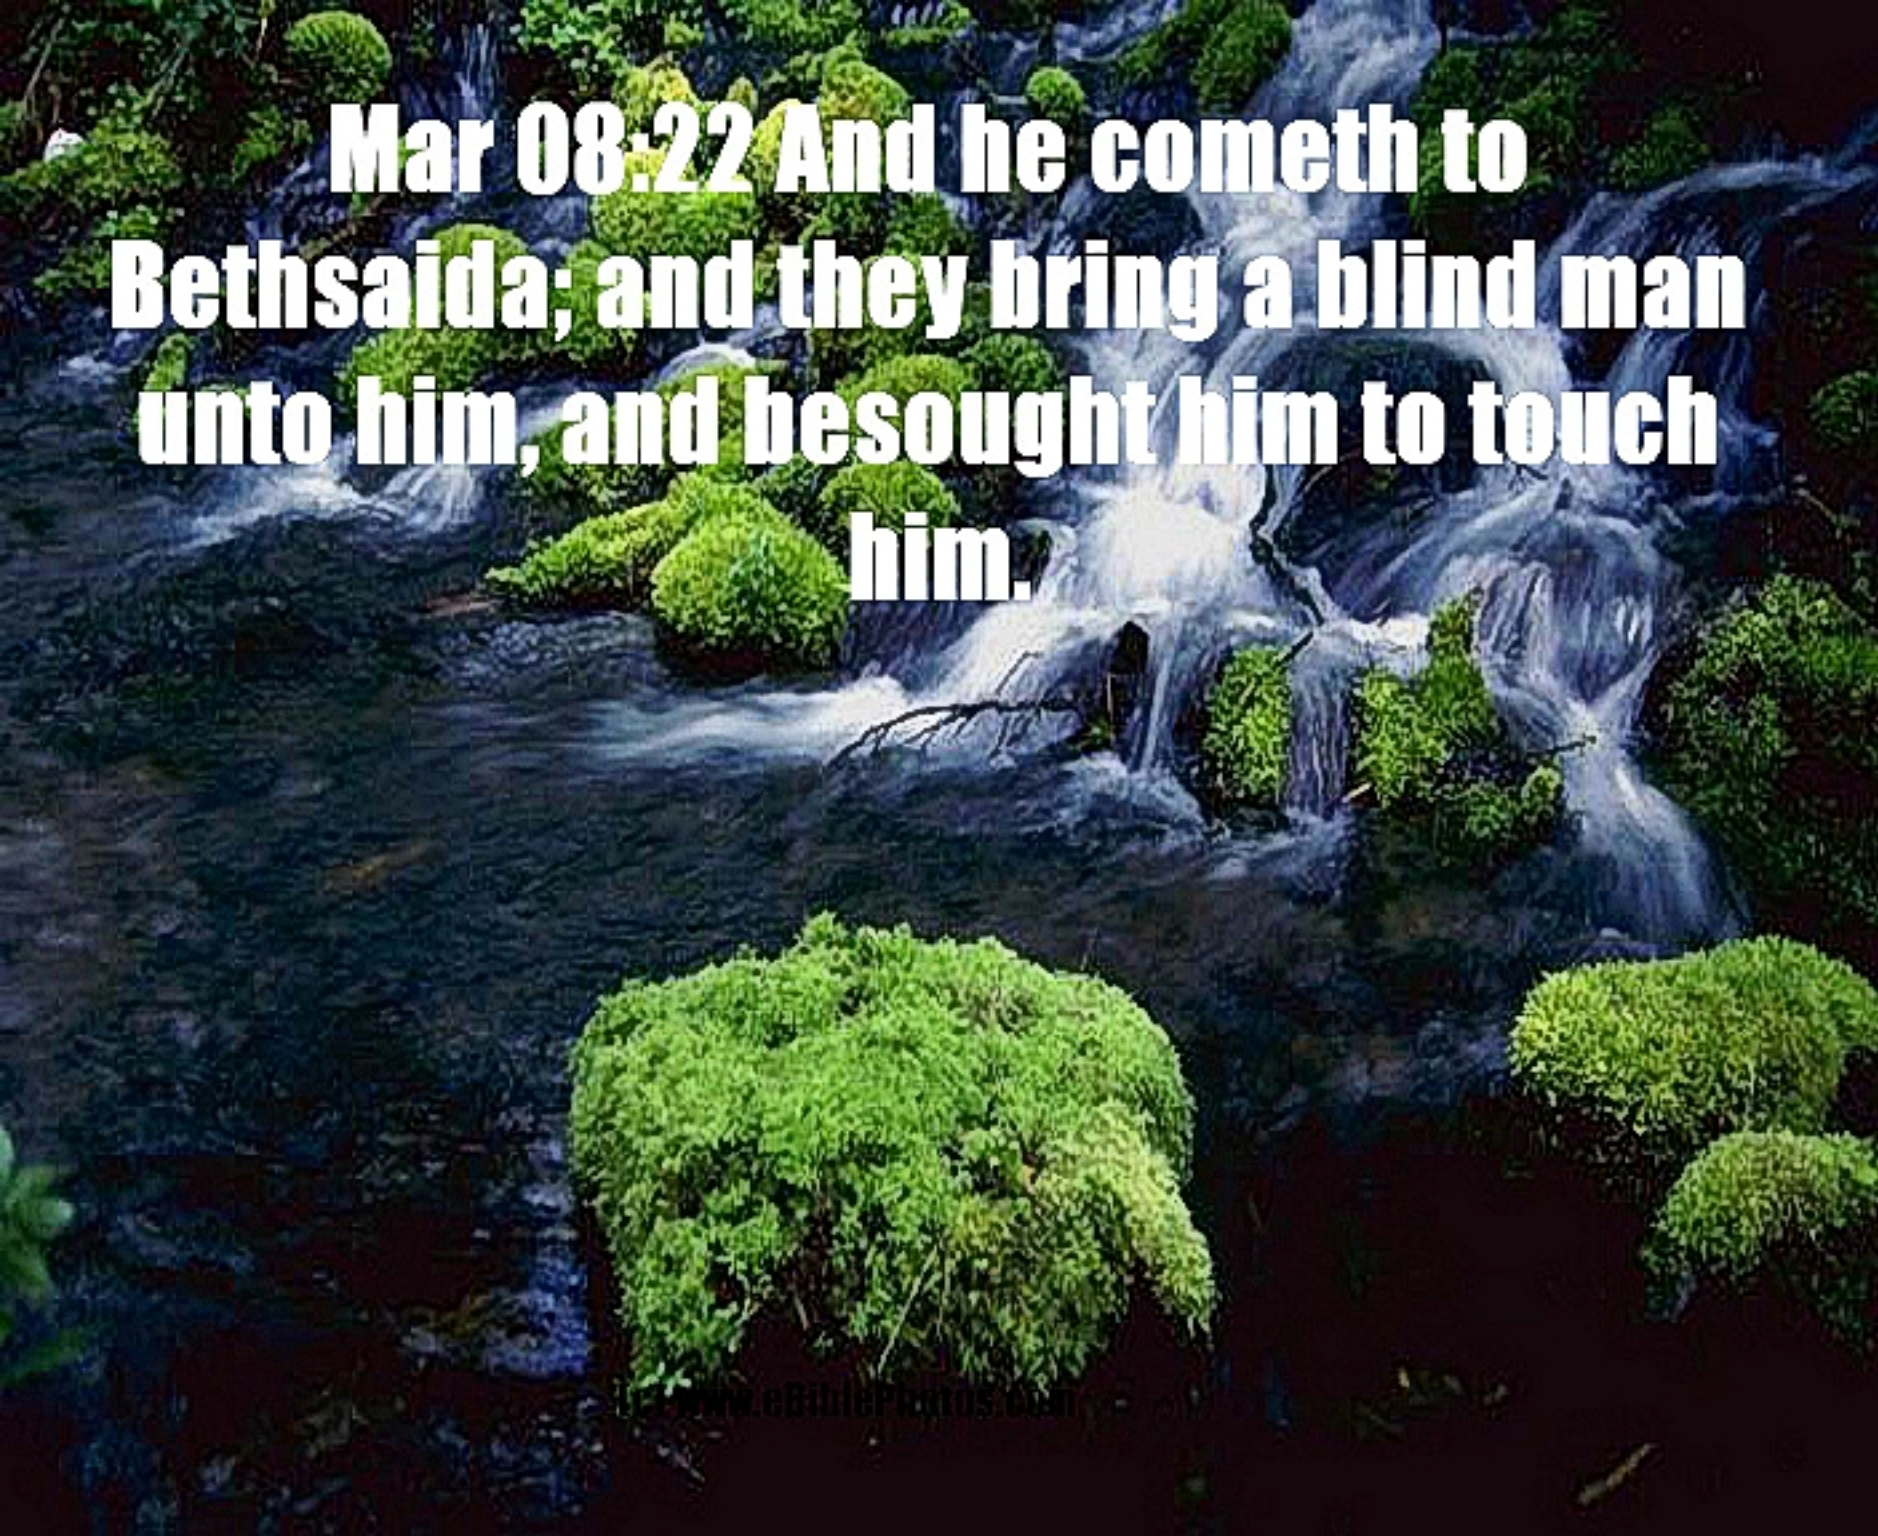

A scenic view of a rocky coastline. In the background, a lighthouse sits atop a cliff overlooking the sea. The foreground shows a sandy beach with several large, dark rocks scattered across it. The sky is clear and blue.

Mat 11:21 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

Mar 06:45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side
before unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

A vibrant, high-angle photograph of a lush, green landscape. A waterfall cascades down a rocky ledge into a stream that flows through the center of the frame. The water is clear and bright, surrounded by dense, vibrant green foliage and moss-covered rocks. The scene is bright and natural, with a focus on the textures of the water and the surrounding vegetation.

Mar 08:22 And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch
him.

Luk 09:10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

Luk 10:13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin!
woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre
and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago
repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

Joh 01:44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida,
the city of Andrew and Peter.

A dramatic seascape with a building on the right and a person on the shore. The image features a turbulent sea with white-capped waves crashing against a dark, weathered building on the right. A person is visible on the shore near the building. The sky is dark and overcast, adding to the dramatic atmosphere. The text is overlaid in the upper left quadrant.

Joh 12:21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.
